Provident Trust Strategy Fund

(PROVX)

A NO-LOAD MUTUAL FUND

IMPORTANT NOTE: Beginning on January 1, 2021, as permitted by regulations adopted by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, paper copies of the Fund's annual and semi-annual shareholder reports will no longer be sent by mail, unless you specifically request paper copies of the shareholder reports from the Fund or from your financial intermediary, such as a broker-dealer or bank. Instead, the reports will be available on the Fund's website (www.provfunds.com), and you will be notified by mail each time a report is posted and provided with a website link to access the report.

If you already elected to receive shareholder reports electronically, you will not be affected by this change and you need not take any action. You may elect to receive shareholder reports and other communications from the Fund electronically anytime by contacting your financial intermediary or, if you are a direct investor, by calling 1-855-739-9950.

You may elect to receive all future reports in paper, free of charge. If you invest through a financial intermediary, you can contact your financial intermediary to request that you continue to receive paper copies of your shareholder reports. If you invest directly with the Fund, you can call 1-855-739-9950 to let the Fund know you wish to continue receiving paper copies of your shareholder reports. Your election to receive reports in paper will apply to all funds that you hold through your financial intermediary or directly with the Fund.

Provident Trust Strategy Fund
Letter to Shareholders (Unaudited)

October 1, 2020

Dear Fellow Provident Trust Strategy Fund Shareholders,

Provident Trust Strategy Fund (PROVX) gained +14.67% for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2020, vs. a +15.15% gain for the S&P 500 Index ("S&P 500"). During Provident Trust Company's tenure as portfolio manager (beginning September 9, 2002) PROVX gained +479.05% cumulatively, with an approximately 79.6% average month-end allocation to equities, vs. +437.68% for the always-fully-invested S&P 500. Top performers for the 2020 fiscal year were PayPal Holdings, Inc., UnitedHealth Group Inc. and Alphabet, Inc. Cl A & B, while The Charles Schwab Corp. ("Charles Schwab"), PNC Financial Services Group, Inc. ("PNC") and Southwest Airlines Co. underperformed. Our growth at reasonable valuation (GARV) strategy permits us to be patient with negative interim investment returns if the underlying business fundamentals remain intact. During the fiscal year we initiated a new position in Facebook, Inc., added to our PNC and Charles Schwab positions, reduced our outsized position in Visa Inc. after it reached a near record valuation and eliminated our positions in The TJX Companies, Inc. and Southwest Airlines Co. due to business shortfalls. The Fund's equity exposure is slightly reduced at approximately 75.0% as of September 30, 2020, vs. 80.5% one year ago (September 30, 2019), which reduced our 9-month and 10-year returns. Provident Trust Company serves, in most cases, as the sole money manager for clients sharing a common goal: long-term inflation adjusted growth.

3Q economic activity was spectacular with Evercore ISI estimating +35% quarter-to-quarter real GDP, almost offsetting the 2Q 2020's record plunge. We are raising our 2020 GDP outlook to -3 – -1% to capture the summer boom. The Wall Street consensus estimate for 2021 GDP is +6%; we estimate 2-3% GDP and profits of $140 for the S&P 500 this year and next. Domestic street chaos, COVID-19, international tensions and high unemployment are a small sample of the reasons some investors/plan sponsors are pessimistic about equity returns. Little attention is paid to the positive:

- 2019 USA median household income grew a record 6.8%.
- Consumer net worth exceeds $124T, doubling the prior peak.
- Americans are "house-rich" which bodes well for consumer spending; median existing home prices surged 2X to $310k since 2012. Homeowners' equity reached a record $21T, a $10T gain since 2010, providing Americans greater financial confidence.
- The nation's top 100 defined benefit plans reduced their equity allocation from 33% to 22% over the past decade, just in time to miss a 14% annualized S&P 500 return, well in excess of the 4% annualized gain for the Barclays Aggregate Bond Index.

2020 is turning out to be a volatile but directionless year. PROVX's strategy for survival/prosperity in a low return/high volatility world relies on earnings and valuation. We expect all of the Fund's stock holdings to earn a profit in 2020 and most are well positioned to post record earnings in 2021. In 2000, the S&P 500's 1.2% dividend yield was a fraction of the 6.0% yielding 10-year T-note. In 2020, the 10 year T-note's 0.8% yield is a fraction of the S&P 500's 1.7% dividend yield. Stocks, expensive relative to bonds 20 years ago, are now "cheap" by comparison.

Thank you for your interest in the Provident Trust Strategy Fund.

J. Scott Harkness, CFA
President

The Fund's 1-year and annualized 5-year and 10-year returns through September 30, 2020 were: 14.67%, 14.11% and 11.98%, respectively. The S&P 500, the Fund's benchmark index, 1-year and annualized 5-year and 10-year returns through September 30, 2020 were: 15.15%, 14.15% and 13.74%, respectively.

The returns do not reflect the deduction of taxes that a shareholder would pay on Fund distributions or redemptions of Fund shares. Performance data quoted represents past performance; past performance does not guarantee future results. The investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Current performance since the above time period may be higher or lower than the performance quoted. Performance data current to the most recent month end may be obtained by visiting www.provfunds.com.

Although the Fund is no load, management and other expenses still apply. As per the Fund's January 31, 2020 Prospectus, the total annual Fund operating expenses as a percentage of the value of your investment, which incorporates indirect fees and expenses that the Fund incurs from investing in the shares of other mutual funds including money markets, otherwise known as acquired fund fees and expenses or AFFE, was 1.00%. Provident has contractually agreed to cap the ratio of expenses to average net assets (excluding AFFE) at 1.00% through January 31, 2021.

Mutual fund investing involves risk. Principal loss is possible. The Fund is non-diversified, meaning it concentrates its assets in fewer individual holdings than a diversified fund. Therefore, the Fund is more exposed to individual stock volatility than a diversified fund. The Fund may invest in smaller and medium-sized companies, which involve additional risk such as more limited liquidity and greater volatility. Investments in debt securities typically decrease in value when interest rates rise. This risk is usually greater for longer-term debt securities. The Fund may invest in money market funds. An investment in a money market fund is neither insured nor guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. Although the money market fund seeks to preserve the value of an investment at $1.00 per share, it is possible to lose money by investing in the fund.

Earnings growth is not representative of the Fund's future performance.

S&P 500 Index: An unmanaged index, consisting of 500 selected common stocks, commonly used to measure the performance of U.S. stocks. It is not possible to invest directly into an index.

Provident Trust Strategy Fund
Expense Example (Unaudited)

As a shareholder of the Provident Trust Strategy Fund, you incur ongoing costs, including management fees, distribution (12b-1) fees and other Fund expenses. You do not incur transaction costs such as sales charges (loads) on purchase payments, reinvested dividends, or other distributions; redemption fees; and exchange fees because the Fund does not charge these fees. This example is intended to help you understand your ongoing costs (in dollars) of investing in the Fund, and to compare these costs with the ongoing costs of investing in other mutual funds.

The example is based on an investment of $1,000 invested at the beginning of the period and held for the entire period from April 1, 2020 through September 30, 2020.

Actual Expenses

The first line of the table below provides information about actual account values and actual expenses. You may use the information in this line, together with the amount you invested, to estimate the expenses that you paid over the period. Simply divide your account value by $1,000 (for example, an $8,600 account value divided by $1,000 = 8.6), then multiply the result by the number in the first line under the heading entitled "Expenses Paid During Period" to estimate the expenses you paid on your account during this period.

In addition to the costs highlighted and described below, the only Fund transaction costs you might currently incur would be wire fees ($15 per wire), if you choose to have proceeds from a redemption wired to your bank account instead of receiving a check. Additionally, U.S. Bank charges an annual processing fee ($15) if you maintain an IRA account with the Fund. To determine your total costs of investing in the Fund, you would need to add any applicable wire or IRA processing fees you've incurred during the period to the costs provided in the example below.

Hypothetical Example for Comparison Purposes

The second line of the table below provides information about hypothetical account values and hypothetical expenses based on the Fund's actual expense ratio and an assumed rate of return of 5% per year before expenses, which is not the Fund's actual return. The hypothetical account values and expenses may not be used to estimate the actual ending account balance or expenses you paid for the period. You may use this information to compare the ongoing costs of investing in the Fund and other funds. To do so, compare this 5% hypothetical example with the 5% hypothetical examples that appear in the shareholder reports of the other funds.

Please note that the expenses shown in the table are meant to highlight your ongoing costs only. The Fund does not charge any transactional fees, such as sales charges (loads), redemption fees or exchange fees. Therefore, the second line of the table is useful in comparing ongoing costs only, and will not help you determine the relative total costs of owning different funds.

	Beginning Account Value 4/01/20	Ending Account Value 9/30/20	Expenses Paid During Period* 4/01/20 – 9/30/20
Provident Trust Strategy Fund
Actual	$1,000.00	$1,242.80	$5.38
Hypothetical (5% return before expenses)	$1,000.00	$1,020.21	$4.85

* Expenses are equal to the Fund's annualized expense ratio of 0.96%, multiplied by the average account value over the period, multiplied by 183/366 (to reflect the one-half year period between April 1, 2020 and September 30, 2020).

Provident Trust Strategy Fund
Management's Discussion of Fund Performance (Unaudited)

Provident Trust Strategy Fund (PROVX) gained +14.67% for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2020, vs. a +15.15% gain for the S&P 500 Index ("S&P 500"). During Provident Trust Company's tenure as portfolio manager (beginning September 9, 2002) PROVX gained +479.05% cumulatively, with an approximately 79.6% average month-end allocation to equities, vs. +437.68% for the always-fully-invested S&P 500. Top performers for the 2020 fiscal year were PayPal Holdings, Inc., UnitedHealth Group Inc. and Alphabet, Inc. Cl A & B, while The Charles Schwab Corp. ("Charles Schwab"), PNC Financial Services Group, Inc.("PNC") and Southwest Airlines Co. underperformed. For 2021, we estimate 2 – 3% GDP and a 10-year Treasury range of 0.4 – 2.0%. We expect a 25X S&P 500 P/E next year. Our 2021 S&P 500 price range is 2,800-4,200. During the 2020 fiscal year, we initiated a new position in Facebook, Inc. added to our PNC and Charles Schwab positions, reduced our out-sized position in Visa Inc. after it reached a near record valuation and eliminated our positions in The TJX Companies, Inc. and Southwest Airlines Co. due to business shortfalls.

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The following is a summary of significant accounting policies of Provident Mutual Funds, Inc. (the "Company"), which is registered as an open-end management investment company under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the "1940 Act"), and accordingly follows the investment company accounting and reporting guidance of the Financial Accounting Standards Board. The Company consists of one non-diversified fund – Provident Trust Strategy Fund (the "Fund"). The Company was incorporated under the laws of Wisconsin on May 23, 1986.

The investment objective of the Fund is long-term growth of capital.

(a) Each equity security is valued at the last sale price reported by the principal security exchange on which the issue is traded. Securities that are traded on the Nasdaq Markets are valued at the Nasdaq Official Closing Price, or if no sale is reported, the latest bid price. Securities which are traded over-the-counter, bonds and short-term U.S. Treasury Bills are valued using an evaluated bid from a pricing service. Money market funds are valued at net asset value per share. Securities for which quotations are not readily available are valued at fair value as determined by the Fund's investment adviser under the supervision of the Board of Directors. The fair value of a security may differ from the Fund's last quoted price and the Fund may not be able to sell a security at the estimated fair value. Market quotations may not be available, for example, if trading in particular securities has halted during the day and not resumed prior to the close of trading on the New York Stock Exchange. As of September 30, 2020, there were no securities that were internally fair valued.

In determining fair value, the Fund uses various valuation approaches. Generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America ("GAAP") establishes a fair value hierarchy for inputs used in measuring fair value that maximizes the use of observable inputs and minimizes the use of unobservable inputs by generally requiring that the most observable inputs be used when available. Observable inputs are those that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability based on market data obtained from sources independent of the Fund. Unobservable inputs reflect the Fund's assumptions about the inputs market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability developed based on the best information available in the circumstances. The inputs or methodologies used for valuing securities are not necessarily an indication of the risks associated with investing in those securities.

The fair value hierarchy is categorized into three levels based on the inputs as follows:

Level 1 — Valuations based on unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets that the Fund has the ability to access.

Level 2 — Valuations based on quoted prices for similar securities or in markets that are not active or for which all significant inputs are observable, either directly or indirectly.

Level 3 — Valuations based on inputs that are unobservable and significant to the overall fair value measurement.

The following table summarizes the Fund's investments as of September 30, 2020, based on the inputs used to value them:

Valuation Inputs	Investments in Securities
Level 1 — Common Stocks	$161,376,288
Money Market Fund	13,065,980
Total Level 1	174,442,268
Level 2 — U.S. Treasury Securities	40,690,562

(b) The Fund may purchase securities on a when-issued or delayed delivery basis. Although the payment and interest terms of these securities are established at the time the purchaser enters into the agreement, these securities may be delivered and paid for at a future date, generally within 45 days. The Fund records purchases of when-issued securities and reflects the value of such securities in determining net asset value in the same manner as other portfolio securities. For the year ended September 30, 2020, there were no such securities.

(c) Net realized gains and losses on sales of securities are computed on the identified cost basis. For financial reporting purposes, investment transactions are recorded on the trade date.

(d) Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. The Fund records the amortization and accretion of premiums and discounts, respectively on securities purchased using the effective interest method in accordance with GAAP.

(e) The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of income and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

(f) No provision has been made for federal income taxes since the Fund has elected to be taxed as a "regulated investment company" and intends to distribute substantially all net investment company taxable income and net capital gains to shareholders and otherwise comply with the requirements of Subchapter M of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, applicable to regulated investment companies.

(g) The Fund has reviewed all open tax years and major jurisdictions, which include Federal and the state of Wisconsin, and concluded that there are no significant uncertain tax positions that would require recognition in the financial statements. The Fund recognizes interest and penalties, if any, related to unrecognized tax benefits on uncertain tax positions as income tax expense in the Statement of Operations. During the year ended September 30, 2020, the Fund did not incur any interest or penalties. Open tax years are those that are open for exam by taxing authorities and, as of September 30, 2020, open federal tax years include tax years ended September 30, 2017 through 2020. The Fund has no examinations in progress and is also not aware of any tax positions for which it is reasonably possible that the total amounts of unrecognized tax benefits will significantly change in the next twelve months.

(h) GAAP requires that certain components of net assets relating to permanent differences be reclassified for financial and tax reporting. These differences are caused primarily by the utilization of earnings and profits distributed to shareholders on redemption of shares as part of the dividends paid deduction. These reclassifications have no effect on net assets, results of operations or net asset value per share. For the year ended September 30, 2020, the reclassifications were as follows:

Distributable Earnings	Capital Stock
$(2,472,292)	$2,472,292

(2) Investment Adviser and Management Agreement and Transactions with Related Parties

The Company, on behalf of the Fund, entered into an investment advisory agreement (the "Advisory Agreement") with Provident Trust Company ("PTC"), with whom certain officers and a director of the Fund are affiliated, to serve as the investment adviser. Under the terms of the Advisory Agreement, the Fund pays 0.75% on the first $30,000,000 of average daily net assets, 0.65% on average daily net assets in excess of $30,000,000 and less than $100,000,000 and 0.60% on average daily net assets over $100,000,000. The Fund is responsible for paying a share of the compensation, benefits and expenses of its Chief Compliance Officer. For administrative convenience, PTC initially makes these payments and is later reimbursed by the Fund.

Pursuant to an expense cap/reimbursement agreement between PTC and the Company, PTC has agreed to waive a portion of its management fee and/or assume expenses for the Fund to the extent necessary to ensure that the Fund's total operating expenses, excluding taxes, interest, brokerage commissions and other costs relating to portfolio securities transactions (including the costs, fees and expenses associated with the Fund's investments in other investment companies) and other extraordinary expenses, do not exceed 1.00% of the Fund's average daily net assets on an annual basis. The expense cap/reimbursement agreement will continue in effect until January 31, 2021, with successive renewal terms of one year unless terminated by PTC or the Company prior to any such renewal. PTC is entitled to recoup such amounts from the Fund for a period of up to three years from the date PTC reduced its compensation and/or assumed expenses for the Fund. During the year ended September 30, 2020, no such expenses were waived and PTC has recouped all eligible amounts.

The Fund adopted a Distribution Plan (the "Plan") pursuant to Rule 12b-1 under the 1940 Act. The Plan provides that the Fund may charge a distribution and service fee not to exceed 0.25% (on an annualized basis) of the Fund's average daily net assets. Amounts payable under the Plan are paid monthly for any activities or expenses primarily intended to result in the sale of shares of the Fund. For the year ended September 30, 2020, no such expenses were charged to shareholders.

Under the Company's organizational documents, each director, officer, employee or other agent of the Company is indemnified, to the extent permitted by the 1940 Act, against certain liabilities that may arise out of performance of their duties to the Company. Additionally, in the normal course of business, the Company, on behalf of the Fund, enters into contracts that contain a variety of indemnification clauses. The Fund's maximum exposure under these arrangements is unknown as this would involve future claims that may be made against the Fund that have not yet occurred. However, the Fund has not had prior claims or losses pursuant to these contracts and believes the risk of loss to be remote.

As of September 30, 2020, PTC beneficially owned 14.66% of the outstanding shares of the Fund on behalf of its investment advisory clients. In addition, as of September 30, 2020, PTC's employees, as participants in the Provident Trust Company Retirement Plan (the "Retirement Plan"), beneficially owned 13.91% of the outstanding shares of the Fund. As a result, as of September 30, 2020, in its capacity as sponsor of the Retirement Plan and investment manager of advisory accounts, PTC beneficially owned, in the aggregate, 28.57% of the outstanding shares of the Fund.

(3) Loan Agreement

U.S. Bank, N.A. has made available to the Fund an unsecured line of credit for $19,000,000, pursuant to an amended Loan Agreement ("Agreement") effective January 26, 2020, for the purpose of having cash available to satisfy redemption requests. For the period October 1, 2019 through January 25, 2020, the line of credit available was $16,000,000. Principal and interest on a loan under the Agreement is due not more than 20 days after the date of the loan. Amounts under the credit facility bear interest at a rate per annum equal to the current prime rate minus one percent on the amount borrowed (2.25% on September 30, 2020). The Agreement expires on January 24, 2021, however, it is renewable annually. For the year ended September 30, 2020, the Fund did not utilize the line of credit.

(4) Distributions to Shareholders

Net investment income and net realized gains, if any, are distributed to shareholders at least annually. Distributions to shareholders are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

(5) Investment Transactions

For the year ended September 30, 2020, purchases and proceeds of sales of investment securities (excluding all short-term securities) were $20,818,896 and $34,109,825, respectively.

(6) Income Tax Information

The following information for the Fund is presented on an income tax basis as of September 30, 2020:

Cost of Investments	Gross Unrealized Appreciation	Gross Unrealized Depreciation	Net Unrealized Appreciation on Investments	Distributable Ordinary Income	Distributable Long-Term Capital Gains	Total Distributable Earnings
$113,974,894	$102,055,218	$(897,282)	$101,157,936	$811,651	$18,605,283	$120,574,870

As of September 30, 2020, there were no differences between the cost of investments for financial statement and federal income tax purposes.

The tax components of dividends paid during the years ended September 30, 2020 and 2019 are:

September 30, 2020		September 30, 2019
Ordinary Income Distributions	Long-Term Capital Gains Distributions	Ordinary Income Distributions	Long-Term Capital Gains Distributions
$977,295	$7,221,012	$507,697	$8,460,485

(7) Subsequent Event

On September 8, 2020, the Board approved the year-end distributions for the Fund. A cash dividend in the aggregate amount equal to the net investment income and short-term capital gains, if any, which will be treated as ordinary income, and long-term capital gains, will be payable on December 18, 2020 to outstanding shares of record at the close of business on December 17, 2020.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Shareholders and Board of Directors of Provident Mutual Funds, Inc.

Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying statement of assets and liabilities, including the schedule of investments, of Provident Mutual Funds, Inc. comprising Provident Trust Strategy Fund (the "Fund") as of September 30, 2020, the related statement of operations for the year then ended, the statements of changes in net assets for each of the two years in the period then ended, including the related notes, and the financial highlights for each of the five years in the period then ended (collectively referred to as the "financial statements"). In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Fund as of September 30, 2020, the results of its operations for the year then ended, the changes in its net assets for each of the two years in the period then ended, and the financial highlights for each of the five years in the period then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

These financial statements are the responsibility of the Fund's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Fund's financial statements based on our audits. We are a public accounting firm registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) ("PCAOB") and are required to be independent with respect to the Fund in accordance with the U.S. federal securities laws and the applicable rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the PCAOB.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the PCAOB. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement whether due to error or fraud.

Our audits included performing procedures to assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and performing procedures that respond to those risks. Such procedures included examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Our procedures included confirmation of securities owned as of September 30, 2020, by correspondence with the custodian. Our audits also included evaluating the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

We have served as the Fund's auditor since 2012.

Availability of Additional Information about Directors

The Fund's Statement of Additional Information includes additional information about the Fund's Directors and is available, without charge, upon request by calling 1-855-739-9950.

The Board of Directors (the "Board" or the "Directors") of the Company met on June 9, 2020 (the "Meeting") to consider the renewal of the Investment Advisory Agreement (the "Investment Advisory Agreement") between the Company, on behalf of the Fund, and Provident Trust Company (the "Adviser" or "PTC") in accordance with Section 15(c) of the 1940 Act. In addition, the Directors who are not interested persons of the Fund as defined in the 1940 Act (the "Independent Directors") met in executive session with the Company's counsel to review and discuss the 15(c) materials.

The Board, including the Independent Directors, reviewed and discussed various information that had been provided in advance of the Meeting and at the Meeting, including a memorandum from counsel that summarized the legal standards applicable to the Directors' consideration of the Investment Advisory Agreement; 15(c) requests for information; PTC's responses to the 15(c) requests for information; PTC's organizational chart; detailed comparative information relating to the Fund's management fee and other expenses of the Fund; information regarding management fees paid by the Fund to PTC and other payments; information on PTC's profitability; PTC's financial statements for the last two years; information about brokerage commissions; detailed comparative information relating to the Fund's performance; information about sales and redemptions of the Fund; information about amounts paid to financial intermediaries; information about PTC's compliance program; PTC's Form ADV; PTC's insurance coverage; and PTC's business continuity plan. The Directors reviewed the terms of the Investment Advisory Agreement, noting that Schedule A to the Investment Advisory Agreement outlined the management fee for the Fund and called for PTC to receive a fee that is calculated daily and paid monthly at an annual rate of 0.75% of the average daily net assets of the Fund on assets of $0-$30,000,000; 0.65% on assets of $30,000,001-$100,000,000; and 0.60% on assets over $100,000,000. The Directors noted that the current management fee is 0.64%.

The Board also took into account information reviewed quarterly throughout the year that was relevant to its consideration of the Investment Advisory Agreement, including Fund performance, management fee and other expense information and discussions with the Fund's portfolio managers.

In determining whether to renew the Investment Advisory Agreement, the Board reviewed and analyzed various factors that it determined were relevant, including the factors discussed below. In its deliberations, the Board did not identify any single factor as determinative.

Nature, Extent and Quality of Services to be Provided to the Fund. The Directors considered the nature, extent and quality of services to be provided by the Adviser to the Fund. The Directors noted the Adviser's continuing commitment to the Fund, the continuity of the portfolio management team for the Fund and the Adviser's disciplined research and investment decision making process. The Directors considered the Adviser's specific responsibilities in all aspects of day-to-day management of the Fund, as well as the qualifications, experience and responsibilities of J. Scott Harkness and Michael Schelble, the Fund's portfolio managers, and other key personnel at the Adviser involved in the day-to-day activities of the Fund, including its chief compliance officer. The Directors noted any services that extended beyond portfolio management, such as making some of the Adviser's key personnel available to serve as officers of the Fund, selecting broker-dealers for execution of portfolio transactions, ensuring adherence to the Fund's investment policies and restrictions, administering the Fund's compliance program and liquidity risk management program, proxy voting, providing risk management services and overseeing the Fund's other service providers. The Directors considered information regarding purchases and redemptions of the Fund's shares as well as the Adviser's brokerage and soft dollar practices. The Directors concluded that the Adviser had sufficient quality and depth of personnel, resources, investment methods and compliance policies and procedures essential to performing its duties under the Investment Advisory Agreement and that the nature, overall quality and extent of the management services provided to the Fund and to be provided to the Fund, as well as the Adviser's compliance program, were satisfactory and reliable.

Investment Performance of the Fund and the Adviser. The Board reviewed the performance of the Fund for the year-to-date, one-year, three-year, five-year, ten-year, and since-inception periods as of March 31, 2020. In assessing the quality of the management services delivered by the Adviser, the Directors also compared the short-term and long-term performance of the Fund on both an absolute and relative basis and in comparison to a benchmark index (the S&P 500 Index) and a Morningstar Peer Group. The Morningstar Peer Group of 26 funds was compiled by U.S. Bancorp Fund Services, LLC ("USBFS") using data from Morningstar, Inc. based on a range of criteria, including Morningstar classification (U.S. large growth funds), load structure (no-load funds without 12b-1 fees), active management (no index funds), and asset size ($60-$260 million). The Directors also reviewed information on the historical performance of other separately managed accounts of the Adviser that are similar to the Fund in terms of investment strategy (the "PTC composite").

The Directors noted that the Fund outperformed its benchmark, the S&P 500 Index, for the year-to-date, one-year, three-year and five-year periods ended March 31, 2020. The Fund underperformed its benchmark for the ten-year and since-inception periods ended March 31, 2020. The Board considered the Adviser's quarterly commentary and discussion of the reasons for the underperformance, including the Fund's concentrated portfolio, the Fund's active share (the percentage of holdings that differ from the S&P 500) is approximately 91%, and the Fund's flexible asset allocation means that the Fund held approximately 24% of its assets in short-term investments as of March 31, 2020, as well as management's view that performance must be considered over complete market cycles. The Directors noted that the Fund's performance, in comparison to the Morningstar Peer Group, was in the second quartile for the year-to-date, three-year and five-year periods ended March 31, 2020. The Fund's performance in comparison to the Morningstar Peer Group was in the third quartile for the one-year period ended March 31, 2020 and fourth quartile for the ten-year period ended March 31, 2020. The Directors noted that the Fund's performance for the year-to-date and five-year periods ended March 31, 2020 outperformed but was generally in-line with the performance of the PTC composite. The Directors noted that the Fund's performance for the one-year, three-year and ten-year periods ended March 31, 2020 underperformed but was generally in line with the performance of the PTC composite. The Fund commenced operations in 1986 and the composite commenced operations in 1999 so there is no comparison for since-inception periods.

The Board also reviewed information on the Fund's performance over full investment cycles. The Adviser defines a full investment cycle as "typically lasting 5-7 years and including both a 30% advance and a 20% decline." The Adviser seeks to exceed the S&P 500 Index return over full investment cycles. The Board reviewed performance for September 9, 2002 to December 31, 2007 and January 1, 2008 to March 31, 2020. The Directors noted that the Fund outperformed its benchmark for both cycles. The Directors further noted that the Fund's performance for the 2002 to 2007 cycle and the 2008 to 2020 cycle underperformed the performance of the PTC composite.

After considering all of the information, the Directors concluded that the performance obtained by the Adviser for the Fund was satisfactory under current market conditions. Although past performance is not a guarantee or indication of future results, the Directors determined that the Fund and its shareholders were likely to benefit from the Adviser's management.

Costs of Services Provided and Profits Realized by the Adviser. The Directors considered the costs of services provided by the Adviser, including the management fee, expenses of the Fund and total expense ratio. The Directors noted that the Adviser has agreed to waive a portion of its management fee and/or assume expenses for the Fund to the extent necessary to ensure that the Fund's total operating expenses, excluding taxes, interest, brokerage commissions and other costs relating to portfolio securities transactions (including the costs, fees and expenses associated with the Fund's investments in other investment companies, i.e., "acquired fund fees and expenses") and other extraordinary expenses, do not exceed 1.00% of the Fund's average daily net assets on an annual basis. The expense cap/reimbursement agreement between the Adviser and the Company will continue in effect until January 31, 2021 with successive renewal terms of one year unless terminated by the Adviser or the Company prior to any such renewal. The Adviser is entitled to recoup such amounts from the Fund for a period of up to three years from the date the Adviser reduced its compensation and/or assumed expenses for the Fund.

The Directors reviewed the related statistical information, including the comparative management fee and expenses of the Fund relative to its Morningstar Peer Group. The Directors noted that the Fund's current management fee of 0.64% is less than the Morningstar Peer Group median of 0.72% and the average of 0.71%. The Fund's management fee falls in the second quartile of the Morningstar Peer Group funds. The Directors observed that the Fund's total annual fund operating expense ratio of 0.95% (excluding acquired fund fees and expenses) is equal to the Morningstar Peer Group median and greater than the average of 0.92% and places it in the third quartile of the Morningstar Peer Group funds. The Directors then compared the fees paid by the Fund to the fees paid by separately managed accounts of the Adviser and noted that fees paid by the separately managed account clients are lower than the management fees paid by the Fund largely due to the additional work of the Adviser related to the Fund, including monitoring of investment restrictions and additional reporting requirements. However, the Board noted that the Fund is currently benefiting from the breakpoint schedule in the Fund's management fee.

The Directors also considered the overall profitability of the Adviser and reviewed the Adviser's financial condition and determined it to be sound. The Directors also examined the level of profits realized by the Adviser from the fees payable under the Investment Advisory Agreement, as well as the Fund's brokerage commissions and use of soft dollars by the Adviser. The Directors noted that the Adviser pays Fund distribution expenses from its reasonable profits.

The Directors concluded that the Fund's expenses and the management fee paid to the Adviser were fair and reasonable in light of the comparative performance, expense and management fee information. The Directors noted that the Adviser's profit from sponsoring the Fund was not excessive and the Adviser maintained adequate profit levels to support its services to the Fund from the revenues of its overall investment advisory activities.

Extent of Economies of Scale. The Directors noted that the Fund's management fee structure contains breakpoint reductions as the Fund's assets grow in size. The Directors compared the Fund's expenses relative to the Morningstar Peer Group and discussed realized and potential economies of scale. With respect to the Adviser's fee structure, the Directors concluded that the current fee structure was reasonable and reflected a sharing of economies of scale between the Adviser and the Fund.

Benefits Derived from the Relationship with the Fund. The Directors considered the direct and indirect benefits that could be realized by the Adviser from its association with the Fund. The Directors considered the benefits to the Adviser from soft dollar arrangements whereby the Adviser received third-party investment research services from broker-dealers that execute the Fund's purchases and sales of securities. The Directors considered that the research services are used to service all of the Adviser's accounts. While difficult to measure, the Directors concluded that the benefits the Adviser receives are fairly modest, given the Fund's relatively low portfolio turnover rate. The Directors noted the Adviser's representation that the Fund allows the Adviser to offer a daily valued product and a flexible investment, as well as serve clients that do not meet its eligibility criteria for separate accounts. Finally, the Directors noted that the Adviser derives reputational benefits from its association with the Fund. The Directors concluded that the other benefits realized by the Adviser from its relationship with the Fund were reasonable.

Based on the Directors' deliberations and their evaluation of the information described above, the Directors, including the Independent Directors, unanimously: (a) concluded that the terms of the Investment Advisory Agreement are fair and reasonable; (b) concluded that the Adviser's fees are reasonable in light of the services that the Adviser will provide to the Fund; and (c) agreed to renew the Investment Advisory Agreement for another year, expiring August 31, 2021.

Provident Trust Strategy Fund
Statement Regarding Liquidity Risk Management Program (Unaudited)
September 30, 2020

In accordance with Rule 22e-4 under the 1940 Act, the Company has adopted and implemented a liquidity risk management program (the “Program”). The Program seeks to promote effective liquidity risk management for the Fund and to protect Fund shareholders from dilution of their interests. The Board has appointed the Adviser as the program administrator (the “Program Administrator”). The Program Administrator has further delegated administration of the Program to the Adviser’s Valuation Committee. The Program Administrator is required to provide an annual report to the Board regarding the adequacy and effectiveness of the Program, including the operation of the highly liquid investment minimum (“HLIM”), if applicable, and any material changes to the Program.

On September 8, 2020, the Board reviewed the Program Administrator’s annual written report for the period December 1, 2019 through June 30, 2020 (the “Report”). The Report provided an assessment of the Fund’s liquidity risk: the risk that the Fund could not meet requests to redeem shares issued by the Fund without significant dilution of the remaining investors’ interests in the Fund. The Program assesses liquidity risk under both normal and reasonably foreseeable stressed market conditions. The Program Administrator uses ICE Data Services, a third-party vendor, to provide portfolio investment classification services, and the Report noted that the Fund primarily held investments that were classified as highly liquid during the review period. The Report noted that the Fund’s portfolio is expected to continue to hold highly liquid investments and be considered a “primarily highly liquid fund” (as defined in the Program) and can therefore continue to rely on the exclusion in Rule 22e-4 from the requirements to determine and review a HLIM for the Fund and to adopt policies and procedures for responding to a HLIM shortfall. The Fund did not hold a significant portion of illiquid investments and the Company was not required to file Form N-LIQUID during the review period. The Report noted that no material changes had been made to the Program since the Board’s last approval of the Program.

The Program Administrator concluded that the Fund has been able to meet redemption needs in all market conditions during the review period without significant dilution to the Fund’s remaining investors. The Program Administrator determined that the Program is adequately designed and operating effectively.

Notice of Privacy Policy & Practices (Unaudited)

Protecting the privacy of our shareholders is important to us. This notice describes the practices and policies through which we maintain the confidentiality and protect the security of your non-public personal information.

What Information We Collect

In the course of providing services to you, we may collect the following types of "nonpublic personal information" about you:

- Information we receive from you on applications or other forms, such as your name, address and social security number, the types and amounts of investments and bank account information, and
- Information about your transactions with us, our affiliates and others, as well as other account data.

What Information We Disclose

We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our current or former shareholders to anyone, except as permitted by law. For example, we are permitted by law to disclose all of the information we collect, as described above, to our transfer agent to process your transactions. Furthermore, we restrict access to your nonpublic personal information to those persons who require such information to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with federal standards to guard your nonpublic personal information.

In the event that you hold shares of the Fund through a financial intermediary, including, but not limited to, a broker-dealer, bank or trust company, the privacy policy of your financial intermediary may govern how your nonpublic personal information would be shared with nonaffiliated third parties.

Important Notice Regarding Delivery of Shareholder Documents (Unaudited)

In order to reduce expenses, we will deliver a single copy of prospectuses, proxies, financial reports, and other communications to shareholders with the same residential address, provided they have the same last name or we reasonably believe them to be members of the same family. Unless we are notified otherwise, we will continue to send you only one copy of these materials for as long as you remain a shareholder of the Fund. If you would like to receive individual mailings, please call 1-855-739-9950 and we will begin sending you separate copies of these materials within 30 days after we receive your request.

Thank you for allowing us to serve your investment needs.
